Duxford

On Wednesday, Rowans and Oaks went on the first school trip of the year to Duxford Imperial War Museum. The children thoroughly enjoyed exploring the different exhibits and developing their knowledge of WW1 and WW2 which they are covering in History this half term.

We also learnt about conflict over more recent years, piecing together a timeline of important events which have shaped British History.

Coding Pro Bots

This week the Silver Birches have been learning about angles. We have begun to learn about the different types of angles: such as acute, obtuse, and right angles.

We have combined this knowledge with our skills of coding. We programmed the Pro Bots to move from one place to another, adjusting the angle they turned to be an acute, obtuse or right angle. We also used them to create different angles using boarder roll to show them.

Post Office

We were very excited to discover a post office in our classroom this week! We learnt about what happens to a letter or card once it has been posted, then we put this into practice as we wrapped up our own parcels and wrote our own cards. They were taken to the post office to be weighed, sorted and the staff told us how much we needed to pay for our stamps. The cards and parcels were then put into sacks for the postman to deliver.
